

Customs Information Paper 3 (2017): new address for sending Export Accompanying Documents (EAD) to HMRC

Published 16 February 2017

Contents

1. Introduction
2. New address
3. Contact details

1. Introduction

Exporters can send Export Accompanying Documents (EAD) to HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) using a new freepost address for indirect export movements from another Member State, where the UK is the Office of Exit and is discharging the EAD.

Please see Customs Information Paper (09) 45 on the National Archives website for background details.

2. New address

The freepost address has changed to:

FREEPOST
BT OPS
EAD

The change is expected to go live with immediate effect.

3. Contact details

For queries relating to this Customs Information Paper email ecs.helpdesk@hmrc.gsi.gov.uk

For general HMRC queries contact Imports and exports: general enquiries.

Issued on the 16 February 2017 by Customs Directorate, HMRC.

HMRC is changing how information is issued to customers. Sign up to receive digital alerts

Read Your Charter to find out what you can expect from HMRC and what we expect from you.

